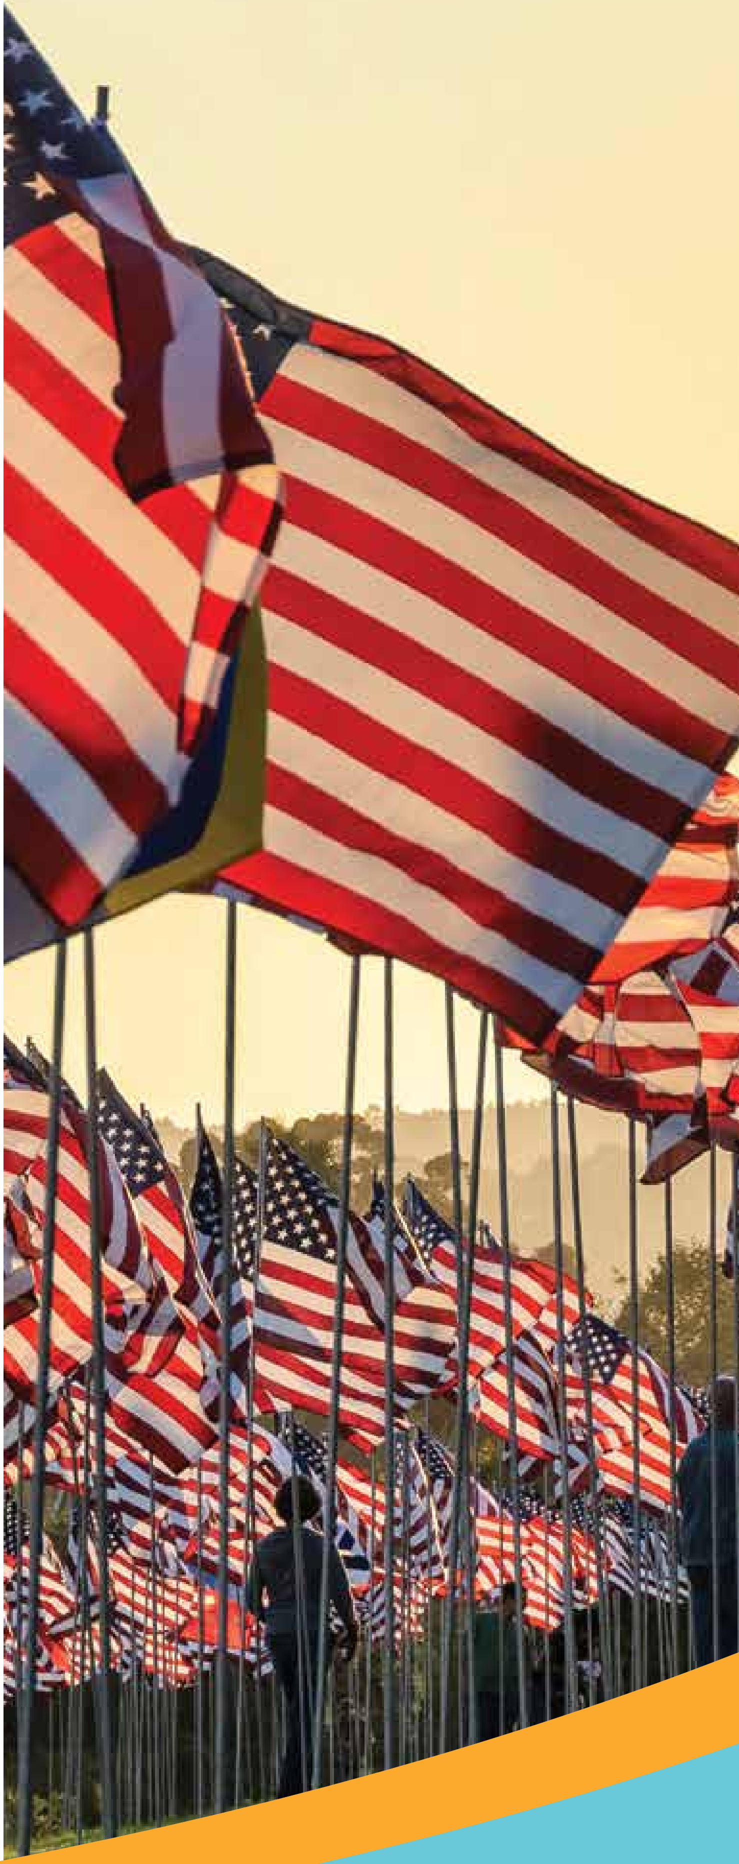
ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Veteran must have served at least 90 days of active military service, with at least one day being during a wartime period
- Veteran must have received a military discharge other than dishonorable
- Veteran or claimant must be in need of the daily aid and attendance of another person in order to avoid the everyday hazards of his or her environment



2025 MAXIMUM PENSION

The rates below are the 2025 Aid and Attendance benefit amounts. The rate a claimant qualifies for depends on their marital status. For example, if you are a veteran whose spouse is deceased, you are eligible to apply for the maximum amount listed under the category “Single Veteran.”

Single Veteran	$2,358 per month $28,300 per year
Married Veteran	$2,795 per month $33,548 per year
Widowed Spouse of a Veteran	$1,515 per month $18,187 per year
Veteran Married to a Veteran	$3,740 per month $44,886 per year
Veteran with a Dependent Child	$2,795 per month $33,548 per year

Pension rates can change annually

V.A. Pension with Aid and Attendance is available to help veterans and their spouses obtain financial aid to pay for long-term care costs. Expenses for home health, assisted living, or skilled nursing facilities are among the many expenses that qualify you to receive a pension from the V.A.
